This strategy seeks to achieve positive impacts that align with the following UN Sustainable Development Goals

Why U.S. renewable energy?

Long term fixed-price revenue contracts	Second largest global power market <sup>2</sup>	Low penetration relative to other developed markets

Investment in renewable energy generation is expected to account for more than 67% of U.S. power capital expenditures over the next decade – representing a potential $360 billion growth opportunity for renewable energy to further decarbonize the power sector

- Strong support from current administration to achieve its 2035 carbon-free U.S. power goal
- Dramatic cost reductions have transformed renewable energy into an economically compelling source of power
